NOTE: The EACME scholarships are for researchers / students moving from one EACME centre to another EACME centre

APPLYING

To apply for a EACME visiting scholarship you should supply us with a completed version of this Application Form and with the following documents:

1. A covering letter addressed to the EACME-President, outlining why you wish to carry out your activities in a specific EACME centre. The name of the EACME-centre and dates of your proposed stay must be specified in this letter;
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. Your research proposal. This should be a short outline of the research you are carrying out;
4. Two academic references (list the name, title, mailing and e-mail addresses, telephone numbers. These colleagues should know your work, and at least one should be from outside your home institution.);
5. Enclose all supporting documents (e.g. articles) that can demonstrate your expertise. Feel free to add extra sheets.
6. A letter of invitation of the hosting centre (if you already have one, see further below)

Do send all your documents via email to our Executive Office, Mrs. Angelique Heijnen:
a.heijnen@maastrichtuniversity.nl

Once your full application has been received, it will be considered within four weeks. You will then be informed whether the Visiting Scholar status will be offered to you.

SOURCES OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Sources of assured support. Specify amount in Euros, and attach supporting documents.

ACCOMMODATION

We regret to say that EACME is unable to help with accommodation. Please contact your hosting Centre. We are sure they can provide you with ideas or strategies for accommodation.

BANK DETAILS

Please specify your bank details (name of the bank, country, your personal account number, international IBAN). We will transfer the surplus of 1000 Euro at the very beginning of your research stay.

A SHORT REPORT

Please note: we highly welcome a short - one-to-two page(s) - report of the benefits of your research stay. We will publish your personal report on our website and in our EACME-Newsletter. Make sure that you contact Angelique Heijnen at the end of your stay. You can then arrange when to best send your report.
